COURSE

This is a chip-timed event. There will be two (2) Water Stations along the course. The course will start and finish near the pavilion just south of the Truman Scarborough Way entrance of the Chain of Lakes Park. The course will run on the asphalt trails around the Chain of Lakes with a quarter mile section on a well-maintained grass trail. Stunningly beautiful yet still utilitarian, the park is 92 acres of wetlands, lakes, and sports venues. The home of ospreys, gulls and other waterfowl, this "working park" features walking trails, bird watching tower and connected lakes, as well as eight lighted soccer fields and three youth and four adult lighted softball fields, plus concessions and new indoor restrooms. Service animals only.

PARKING

Parking is close to the start/finish line area. Please park in the open dirt parking lot just a few yards from the pavilion. DO NOT park in the soccer parking lots.

PROCEEDS

Proceeds benefit the community through many HSCC programs/projects including Food Pantry, School Supply backpacks, Blessing Bags for the Homeless, Utility Bill aid Fall Festival, Thanksgiving Baskets, Angel Tree, Life Teen, EDGE, Easter Baskets, Family Game Night, Ministry to the Sick, Mims Christmas parade, Vacation Bible School, Sanctuary refurbishment, and other non-profit programs/projects that benefit our local community. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charity.
